

"Manoa" Dinner

The menu for the S. S. "Manoa" dinner of March 27 was as follows:

Canape of Sardines
California Oyster Cocktail
Manoa Fruit Salad
Mock Turtle Soup
Filet of Sole, Hollandaise Sauce
Prime Ribs of Beef au Jus
Roast Young Chicken with Dressing
Apple Fritters, Wine Sauce
California Peach Melba
Dessert
Cafe Noir

Those who were present say that Chief Steward Wilmarth excelled himself in providing the feast.

Strangers and friends are very cordially invited to all the services.

SAVED HIS TREASURE.

Clever Ruse of a Blind Man Who Had Been Robbed.

"My great-uncle, who was blind," said a Frenchman, "once buried $4,000 in gold louis under a pear tree in his garden. His neighbor saw him do it and in the dead of night came and stole the money, replacing the earth carefully."

"Some days later my uncle brought fifty more louis down to the pear tree for burial. He soon discovered his loss, and, silently weeping, he, too, replaced the earth."

"He knew whom to suspect, and that night he called on his neighbor. He seemed thoughtful and distrustful, and the neighbor asked him what oppressed his mind."

"Well, I'll tell you," said my great-uncle frankly. "I have 1,000 louis hid away in a safe place, and today a tenant paid off a mortgage, and I have another 1,000 louis in cash on my hands. I don't know whether to seek out another hiding place for this money or put it where the other is. What do you advise?"

"Why," said the neighbor eagerly, "if your first hiding place is safe—and you declare it to be so—I should certainly put this money there too."

"My great-uncle said firmly that that was what he would do on the morrow. It was the wisest course. Then he took his leave."

"And when next day he went to the pear tree again there, sure enough, was his lost 1,000 louis, all put back again."—Exchange.

Diplomacy.

The Fussy Patron—Why, mercy, this shoe is a 6! The Tired Clerk—Pardon me, madam, you have it upside down. It is really a 9—child's size. What a perfect fit!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Find the cause of each wrinkle on a man's face and you will find it was put there by worrying over something that worrying could not help.

Locals

E. R. Bevins has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late J. S. Ralston.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Baldwin returned on Wednesday evening from a visit to Honolulu.

John Brown, Jr., of the Wailuku Tax office, has been appointed district magistrate of the Lahaina court.

A. R. Silva, the traveling man, is again on Maui with a fine stock of goods which come from McInerney & Co.

Judgement was granted in the case of Purdy vs. K. Honda in the District Court of Wailuku on Thursday last.

The heavy rainfall during the week has done a lot of good for growing crops, but the high winds have been cursed a lot.

The new pastor of the Kahului Church arrived on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are settling down in their new home.

One of the street lights fell to the ground during the high winds of Wednesday morning. Fortunately no one was passing at the time.

There will be a ladies handicap tennis tournament on the Puunene courts this month. Entries close at the Puunene office next Monday.

The big dredge of the Hawaiian Dredging Company is back in Kahului harbor where she will continue the work of deepening the bay.

The Race Club ball is set for April 25, and many beautiful fancy dresses are planned for the affair. Tickets will be on sale in a few days time.

Kiawe trees that border the country roads are troubling the Telephone Company a lot, as the branches of the trees in many cases touch the wires.

The Kona storm of this week was a fierce one and many trees were blown down. Much fruit was destroyed and branches of trees littered the streets of Wailuku.

Engineer Plummer of the Hawaiian Dredging Company, is in Wailuku where he will remain for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Plummer accompanies her husband.

David Kaina, who appealed from a fine inflicted in the District Court, was found guilty by a jury in the Circuit Court, and was fined $2.50 more than the first penalty.

Captain Weedon, of the new Matson steamer Manoa, met many of his old friends while in Kahului last week. The captain is popular and has been visiting Maui for years past.

The plant and furniture of the defunct Maui Shinbun was sold at public auction last Monday. The sale brought $1,200 and probably the new owners will start a paper again.

The organ recital at the Church of the Good Shepherd was well attended on Thursday night and was much enjoyed. Mrs. J. C. Villiers was happy in her selection of musical items.

There will be a meeting of the Maui Racing Association this evening at the Wailuku Town Hall. The tentative program arranged by the executive committee will be discussed.

R. K. Purdy is suing K. Honda for an amount said to be due on a promissory note and on account of material supplied. Purdy bought the claim from the Island Investment Company for one dollar.

T. D. Collins, of the Wailuku Sugar Company staff, was naturalized in the Circuit Court before Judge Kingsbury last Monday. W. L. West and Jno. D. Holt, Jr., stood sponsors for Mr. Collins.

Kaumana Wine is a product of the "Big Island," and is absolutely pure. J. G. Serrao is the wine expert of Hilo and his winery is famous all over the group. Kaumana Wine may be obtained from all dealers, or direct from the winery.

The Baldwin boys, Herbert and Clarence, are home for the Easter holidays. Miss Cleo Case is also spending her vacation in Wailuku. The Wadsworth boys and Henry Pogue are at home for a short holiday.

The Maui Evangelical Association held its semi-annual meeting at Lahaina last week. The big convention will be held at Wailuku from July 9 to July 15. The program is being arranged for the convention.

There was a big landslide on the Pali road near the twelve mile post on Monday night last. Several autos were prevented from getting through to Lahaina, and passengers had to be transferred to cars that came from the Lahaina side.

An auto, driven by a Japanese named Tatsumi, on Friday evening last, ran into the corner post of the Maui Hotel verandah and broke the post off. The Japanese was trying to avoid a collision with the auto of C. T. Bailey. In the police court the Japanese was ordered to pay a fine of $25.

Miss Lida Crickard, while trying to prevent a youngster from being injured by an automobile last Wednesday afternoon, slipped and fell. The well known principal of the Wailuku School sustained a broken arm through the fall, but still with great pluck sticks to her post in the school.

On April 18 the performance to be given at the Maui Theatre by the children, promises to be a splendid one. "Little Red Riding Hood" will be the play produced and Mrs. L. C. Jones is working hard on the affair. There will probably be a matinee given in order to allow as many children as possible to see the show.
